The total number of kindergarten and nursery schools in the Republic was thus 1,292, with 56,173 children of preschool age in attendance. ELEMENTARY EDUCATION. Elementary education is imparted in the primary and higher primary schools. The primary school generally consists of five or six grades. In larger localities a higher type of elementary education is provided in the so-called higher primary schools, comprising the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades. As the name indicates, they offer supplementary instruction to pupils of school age who do not intend to pursue their education in secondary institutions. These schools are either attached to the primary schools or organized as separate institutions. The course of study in the higher primary schools lasts three years. In recent years there has been a strong movement among the Czech educators to extend it beyond this limit by adding another year....
