 XXX. BUSINESS INTEGRITY. Will you be honest, if I buy you? asked a wouldbe buyer of a young negro, in the old days of human traffic. I will be honest, whether you buy me or not, replied the slave. We hear much about honesty as the best policy. It is recommended even by those who say that they have tried both ways, and ought to know. Yet to be honest anyway, whatever comes of it, is the first thought of every one who carried his manhood into his business. Veritas is engraved upon the buildings and gates of Harvard University, -- The Truth. Now that the college yard is enclosed by a park fence on every side, this legend from a great Hebrew poet is placed above a principal entrance: -- Open ye the gates that the righteous nation which keepeth truth may...
