C. 20013) : The Office, 1998. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)40725704 Subject: Artificial satellites. Excerpt: . . . B-279653 officials in the Space Station Program Office, the Space Shuttle Program Office, the Office of Human Space Flight, the Office of Life and Microgravity Sciences and Applications, the Office of the Comptroller, and the X-38 development program. We also met with officials from NASAs space station Cost Assessment and Validation Task Force to discuss the scope and results of their work, and the National Research Council to discuss ongoing work related to station disposal. To examine potential impacts of satisfying s debris tracking requirement, we discussed a NASA recent Air Force study with cognizant officials and reviewed previous debris tracking studies. NASA We used budget data to depict certain costs and to derive other costs. We used cost reports and independent assessments to test the reliability of s estimates and to identify cost risks to the program. We did not, NASA NASA however, attempt to independently validate s budget data. We performed our work from December 1997 to April 1998 in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Unless you publicly announce its contents earlier, we plan no further distribution of this report until 15 days from its issue date. At that time, we will send copies to appropriate congressional committees, the NASA Administrator, and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget. We will also make copies available to others on request. Please contact me at (202) 512-4841 if you or your staff have any questions about this report. Major contributors to this report are listed in appendix II. Allen Li Associate Director, Defense...
