Excerpt: . . . on which Leopold has accepted, and that you are relieved from your apprehensions that anything dishonourable would be acquiesced in. The Articles appear to me just for both parties, and if peace can be maintained on this ground, it surely is more than could have been expected when we undertook the Government. I am sorry to hear that Matuscewitz has been declaiming violently against your word contest. Nothing, it seems, but the word revolt could have satisfied him. Not being able to go out of the house, I have not seen Don Pedro. I hear he means to bring the young Queen here. What will the Duke of Wellington and Lord Aberdeen say to this if it should happen You could not fail to observe the anxiety shown by both to support Don Miguel. It is an age since I saw you, and I...
