Every woman loves a good book, especially if that book describes through the Word of God how to prepare herself for love. Who doesn't want to be in love? Love makes the world go around. Love drives the birds to sing. Love births people and people birth movements. As women, we are encompassed with so much hype about what a man wants and what he needs. There are magazines which give us hints and clues, websites, and so much more, but we want a love that lasts and we want to know from someone experienced in those areas to share how they found love, not what makes great sellers. We don't want gimmicks, tricks, and we certainly don't want to play games. Many of us are getting older and may have more years behind us than ahead of us so time is of the essence. What do we do and how do we do it? I am a very happily married woman to a wonderful husband and doting father. But I have not always been blessed by love. I have seen many darkened days of love which nearly drowned my desire or appeal for anything or anyone else. I have heard advice and counsel and have prayed for years to no avail. I still had no clue what to do about love. One day after an older woman bombarded me with her ridiculous idea of how to find love, I reached my breaking point. I had finally grown weary of asking others about my personal life. I decided to ask the One who created me and knew all about who I was and what I needed better than...
