That sacred log near the river must have felt deserted and melancholy. No more talk about all the women. I doubt if the prophet could have got sealed to more than half a dozen new wives between June 7 and 27; times were too squally. One of the minor conspirators. Higbee, went to Car-thage and made a complaint before the justice of the peace. The constable came to Nauvoo, and immediately the usual comedy was enacted. Joseph had built a sort of unconquerable castle of charters and ordinances. When-ever he or one of his friends was accused, the case was brought before the municipal court of Nauvoo, of which 160 Mormon Portraits. --. Joseph Smith. the prophet was president by virtue of his office as mayor. That court hail power to grant writ. s of habeas corpus, and to decide as to the merits of any case. What else could such a proceeding be but a most contemptible farce Judge the Pope by a court of twelve common monks i Says Mr. Littlefield: It was decided by the Court that Joseph Smith had acted under proper authority in destroying the establishment of the Xauvoo Ex-po tior: that his orders were executed ill an orderly and judicious minuter, lotltout noise or tumuli;that this was a malicious persecu-tion on the part of V. M. Higbee, and that said Higbee pay costs of suit, and that Joseph Smith lie honorably discharged from the...
