Your job doesn't have to be so complicated or so arduous. Use Dacri's formula for uncomplicating the task of managing. Rick Dacri knows how to break down the complexities of managing people. This motivating book offers straightforward advice that any manager in any sized organization can use on a daily basis. -Nathan Poore, Town Manager, Falmouth, Maine This book packs a powerful punch in areas that managers and entrepreneurs absolutely MUST be savvy in. Leave theory behind! Uncomplicating Management is full of insightful advice from a hands-on management approach. The bottom line is that it works! - Maureen Regan, President, Seaside Vacation Rentals . .brilliance and simplicity. I love the differentiate between the bright light and dim glow reference. I've never seen it/heard it before but it made me smile. This is such an important topic and seems to have been seriously overlooked in our management practices. You have captured it beautifully in describing how much effort and how many resources we put into the creation of systems to trap and punish the poor performers while the stars go under-appreciated. Makes me sit up and take notice. - Kathy Hessel, Vice President, Human Resources, Carroll Enterprises.
